Dear Graduates of 1984,

The class of '84 will be long remembered for its intellectual superiority and its service to the school. Many of the graduates attended SJIS for twelve full years. All that time the class was regarded as gifted and cooperative--qualities to last a lifetime.

All of your years here you had the sterling example of Fr. Francis Gerber. You are among the last students he will ever teach. In a way he is passing the torch along to you. Please God one of you will take it up and eventually serve in his place at St. Joseph International School.

Your legacy of dedication, scholarship, and school spirit will long be an inspiration to the students who follow you. You have helped make S.J.I.S. a better school--far better than you found it when you entered the First Grade in 1972. The new library, the computer lab, the Northstar word-processor for the Chronicle--these are but a few of the material benefits enjoyed during your years at S.J.I.S.

Best of all you took seriously the mission of the school. You are better human beings through your efforts of self-discipline, your concern for others, and your sense of dedication. Like Midas, everything you touched seemed to turn to gold: prize winning dramas and speech contests to mention only two. Outstanding athletic teams triumphed in your years. You have much to look back on with pride.

Now you enter a new phase of your life: four years or more of university work. Take with you the good you have learned. Bring to your university years the same dedication and zeal for study you learned at S.J.I.S. Keep the ideals lived and taught at the school. Bear in mind that now and forever our prayers will follow you all through your life and beyond.

Gratefully yours,

Bro. Donald McKee, S.M.

CLASS OF 1988

I think the eighth grade has been long and hard and I'm ready for high school

Thomas Bennett

Chu-Fa Chang

I'm glad to graduate from the eighth grade and become a high school student

Graduation is one important step in life when you grow up and become a gentleman

Scott Dolph

Chang-Tsien Fang

I feel very happy, but I think I have to try much harder in everything I do

I think Graduation is the starting point to develop our own responsibility

Taisuke Jo

James Jordan

I feel happy

It's an honor to graduate from SJIS

James Keating

Takatumi Kobayashi

To graduate is happy for me and others

I feel like I have grown up from being a child

Alvaro Lopez-Leiva

Kosuke Mizushima

I feel graduation leads to my next stage of life

Graduation, to me, means becoming a member of high school, but we don't change.

Adam Uvada

I'm happy graduating from the grade school

William Reyle

This really stimulates me.

William Reyle

I'm happy because I can be a high school student next year.

William Reyle

I like it. Its the end of another year

Daniel Stewart

I'm glad about graduating from the eighth grade with my classmates.

Alexander Takaoka

From now on I will need to show more responsibility about studies and myself

Yuh-Tsueh Tsai

I finished one step in my school year and received a diploma with all my friends

Yuh-Tsueh Tsai

I think graduation will help me a lot but I wish I could graduate with a higher average

Sean Whitehouse

I climbed eight steps, and start up a new step again

Homeroom Teacher:
Mr. Christopher Chang

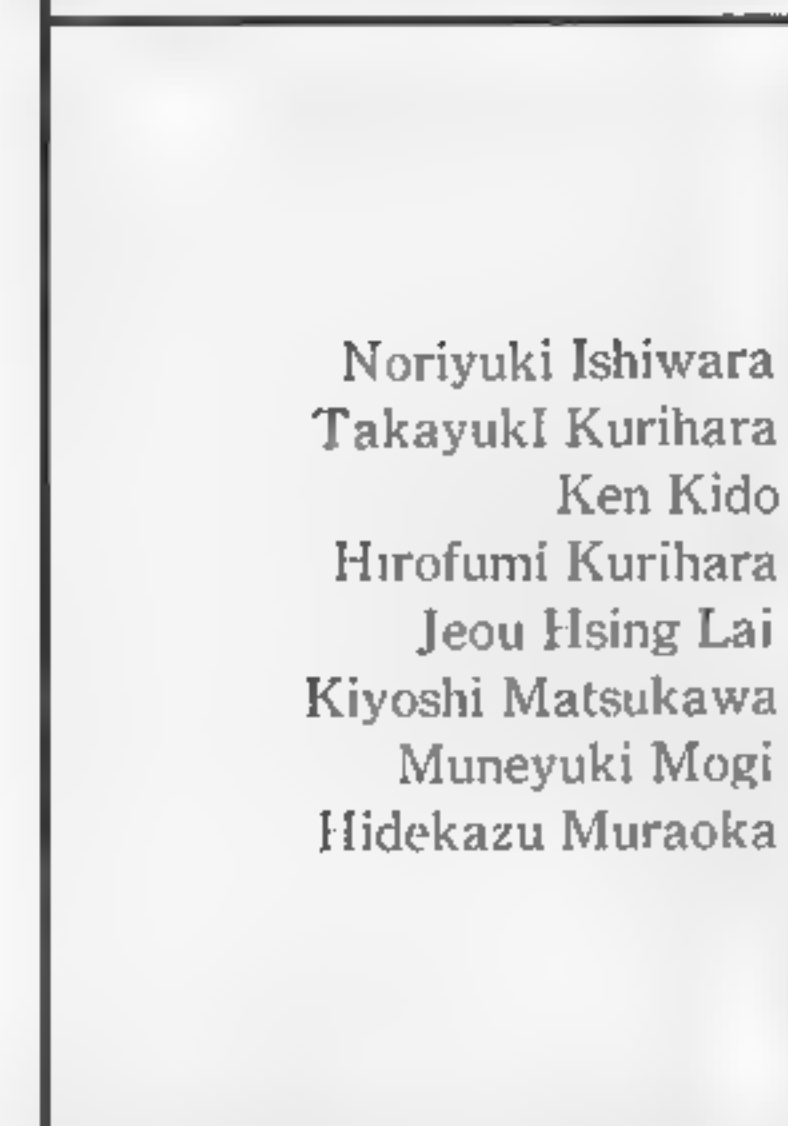

At our Christmas party we had very nice decorations. Everybody tried very hard. Last year, about every teacher was saying that we were the hardest class they ever had. So we wanted to make this year a good year, a year we cannot forget forever. I think we made that goal, because there was help from all of us together. And there was our homeroom teacher, Mr. Chang.

Homeroom Teacher:
Miss Merlyn D'Rozario

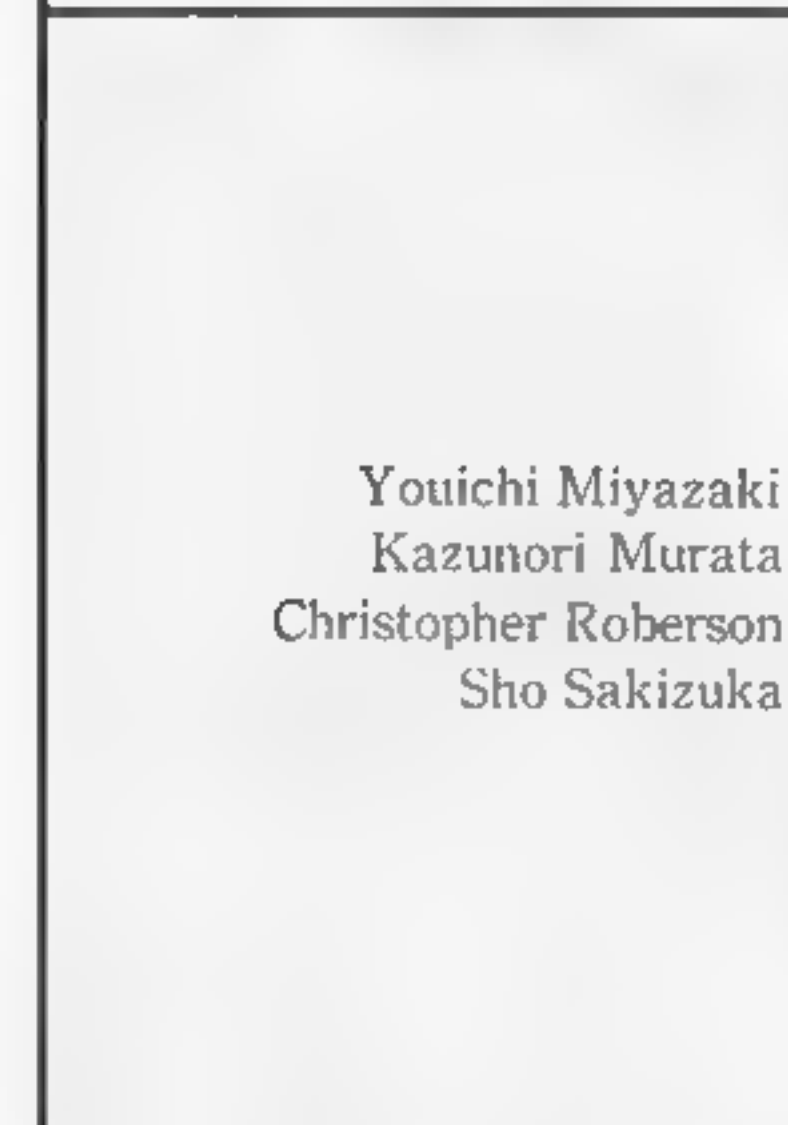

In December we made sandwiches. Some boys brought bread. Some brought tuna and some mayonaise. We ate the sandwiches. It was very good. Miss Di draws many things so we can learn many things. She teaches a lot of fun things and tricks for adding and divisions. One day during ethics we made pictures out of macaroni.

THE RETURN

But twelve, Soo Myung,

Bitter bites the North Sea?

Iced waves, a fading call :

Mamma... Daddy...

Autumn and school.

One empty desk, sun lit.

: by Francis Grisez

We are justly proud to have had our son enrolled as a student of St. Joseph College. His stay was brief, but he enjoyed happy days, having devoted teachers and close friends. The holy Mass offered on the 9th of September is for us and for Soo Myung an eternal consolation. Our sincere thanks to Bro. McKee, the faculty, parents, and students for helping us bear the sorrow of the tragedy of September 1st. Our heartfelt wishes of prosperity and good health to you all.

LIFE AND HOPE

How wonderful to be alive!
Everyone has a life to live,
Everyone has hopes and dreams.
Even now, somewhere, happiness is waiting
Children run after pleasures and dreams,
Adults find joy in raising their children.
Then, suddenly, life is gone
Every person must die.
I have to reflect; I will die,
I must not waste my life.
Why is a man born,
And then, after some years,
Why does he die?
After I die, where will my spirit go?
I think, after death, we all go
To reflect on what we have done
And then we will be reborn
Children once more!
But this may never happen.
Then once we die,
No chance to live again.
So, try to realize your dream, your future.
You may face pain and sadness
Yet, I want, to become an adult
As quickly as I can.
Adults are free

Poems of Soo Myung Chai 1981
いのちときぼう

生きることはすばらしい。
 だれもがいのちをもっている
 そしてだれもがきぼうとゆめを、もっている。
 今どこかでしあわせがまっている。
 子どもは、しあわせとゆめをおつかけていて
 おとなは、しあわせな気分で子を、そだてる
 そして命はふっときえていく
 だれだっていずれは死ぬ
 そのことをかくごしてききれば、
 ぼんやりとくだらないことを考えていると
 ああもったいないことをしてしまった
 せっかくこうして生きているのに
 と、なると思う
 人はなぜ生まれて何十年もすると死ぬのだろうか。
 死んだ自分じんのいしきは、
 どこにいってしまうのだろうか。
 ぼくは、人は死ぬといしきは、みなきまったばしょに
 いって今まで生きていた間のはみんせいを
 して、また子となって育つと思う。
 でもこれは、ありえないことだ。
 だからもう生きるチャンスは、ないかも
 だからみんなは、しょう米のゆめをつかもうと
 ひつしなはずだ。つらいこと悲しいことは、みんな
 あるはず。早く大人にならない大人は、自分だから

力 二

THE CRAB

On a river bank a crab zig-zagged along.
I gave him some grains of rice.
Gobble, gobble— he ate it all up
I liked him so much! I took him home.
I hid him in the garden sand,
But, out he crawled
I gave him some food,
Then water,
Fresh sand
But what was missing?
Freedom, I thought
A week later, I took him back to his river
I hope he is still alive,
Because I really feel
As if he's my little brother

Ladybug: I'm ashamed. So many freckles.
Ice Cream: I run from the heat.
Crab: Hummm.
How to walk a straight line?
Pencil: Life is a grind.
Potato: Can't see why all these eyes.

何 頌明 The duck

Frankly speaking, he was terrible as our editor. He was too hard-working and serious for we foolish staff. But surprisingly, he did become crazy at times.

We still don't understand why at times, you became upset. We suddenly quiet down to soothe you. Stop punching walls to relieve your stress. Are your fists all right? Your stomach ache probably comes from the stress (is it cancer or simply ulcers?). Well anyway cheer up! We all loved you as our editor.

石井 智也理 Ha!
Charlie.

Mr. Co-Editor, I would like to ask you one question: What DID you do? At first, you were doing some layout, or I should say, you were the only one who knew how to, but towards the end ...

HA! You were a tremendous help when we played "FORWARD". One advice: don't fool around.

李 在 鴻 The Neutralist
Jay Lee

You're just mediocre That was what we thought, but hey! You do have talent. You can draw very well (caricatures). You've come to almost every meeting, SELDOMLY COMPLAINING. Everyone enjoyed your existence.

Why were you always the victim when we played "FORWARD". Everyone wanted to assault you.

序二 不安野樂椅子 Goma
Johnny

We've finally discovered something! You can only develop pictures, but nothing else. During your free time, you fooled around with Charlie. But we ALSO enjoyed your existence. We at least had somebody to pick on.

Thank you for all the over or under developed films and pictures. We all loved them.

儲 俊 祥 The hentai
Chubby Chu

It was our big mistake to elect you as our business manager. How many contract sheets did you lose? Over these exciting forward days, we realized what you really are ... A WIERDO!

We always knew when you were coming. The place was shaking when you ran down the hallway. Oh, by the way, THANX for your interesting stories.

皆藤 陽一郎 The 小指
Yochan.

Calm down at Denny's. Be nice to the waiters. We sometimes really wonder about your temerity. But nevertheless, you were the only one who was truly serious. Please don't complain again; you're the one who's always going home early.

Keep it up! Keep what up? Keep your pinky up. And finally, DON'T wear your shocking pink blouson again.

程 近 文 The Lip
Steven

You came "from time to time." Was it to enjoy or to work? Jussa joke. You were a great help: Singing songs, Punching people, "FORWARDING"; and of course doing some work.

By the way, how did you get your lips? We all envy you; after all, it's always nice to have more than enough.

見上 一裕 The match
Charles

What can we say to you but apologize. Your picture is not on the staff page, we put K.M. instead of K.C.M, and much more. Despite your not-working-seriously, you DID DO some work, especially the comments for the snaps

By the way, do you ever comb your hair?

By C.H.C.
